History of Triathlon

Triathlon was invented in the early 1970's by the San Diego Track club in the United States, as an alternative workout to the rigours of track training. The club's first event consisted of a 10km run, an 8km cycle and a 500m swim.

Over the next decade, triathlon grew by leaps and bounds and soon gained recognition throughout the world. In 1989, the International Triathlon Union (ITU) was founded in Avignon, France and the first official world championships were held. The official distance for triathlon was set at a 1500m swim, a 40km cycle and a 10km run -- taking from existing events in each discipline already on the Olympic program. This 'standard' distance is used for the ITU World Cup series and will also be featured at the Olympic Games.

Since 1989, the sport has grown rapidly and now has over 75 affiliated national federations around the world.

In 1994, at the IOC Congress in Paris, France, triathlon was awarded full medal status on the Olympic program and will make its debut at the Sydney 2000 Olympic Games.

Triathlon Today

Triathlon, despite its short history, already has over 75 nations affiliated with the International Triathlon Union. The sport has an established international circuit with World Cup events held in countries throughout the world.

Triathlon at the Olympic Games

In its Olympic debut, Triathlon has the honour of being one of the first medals awarded at the Sydney 2000 Olympic Games. The women's event will take place on the first day of competition, with the men competing on day two.

Triathlon in Australia

The sport came to Australia in 1981/82 and has developed at a dramatic rate since then. The first State Triathlon Associations were formed in late 1984 and early 1985. In May 1986 at Broadbeach, Queensland, the Triathlon Federation of Australia was formed. In 1991, the name of the national governing body was changed to Triathlon Australia. Triathlon Australia boasts a membership of 10 000 with more than 100 affiliated clubs. Australian triathletes have dominated the world of triathlon, finishing on the podium at every World Championships since 1989.

Historique du triathlon

Le triathlon fut créé au début des années 1970 par le club d'athlétisme de San Diego, comme variation à l'entraînement sur la piste. La toute première épreuve du club comportait 10 km de course à pied, 8 km à vélo et 500 m de natation.

La décennie qui suivit fut riche pour le triathlon, qui s'est rapidement développé et est maintenant reconnu dans le monde entier. L'Union Internationale de Triathlon (ITU) a été fondée en 1989 en France à Avignon, et les premiers Championnats du monde ont mis aux prises les athlètes sur un parcours de 1 500 m de natation, 40 km de vélo et 10 km de course à pied (toutes ces épreuves individuelles sont par ailleurs présentes au programme olympique). Les distances sont celles des épreuves de Coupe du monde ITU et des Jeux Olympiques.

Depuis 1989, le triathlon a beaucoup évolué et compte maintenant plus de 75 fédérations affiliées dans le monde.

En 1994, lors du congrès du CIO à Paris, le triathlon a été introduit au programme sportif pour les Jeux de Sydney 2000, où il fera ses débuts olympiques.

Le triathlon de nos jours

Bien qu'il soit un sport relativement récent, le triathlon compte déjà plus de 75 fédérations nationales affiliées à l'Union Internationale de Triathlon (ITU). Ce sport est organisé selon un circuit international comprenant des épreuves de coupe du monde se déroulant dans les villes du monde entier.

Le triathlon aux Jeux Olympiques

Le triathlon a fait ses débuts olympiques aux Jeux de Sydney, et a été l'un des premiers sports à décerner des médailles d'or. L'épreuve féminine a eu lieu le premier jour de compétition, tandis que les hommes ont pris le départ le deuxième jour.

Le triathlon en Australie

Le triathlon a été introduit en Australie en 1981-82 et s'est, depuis, développé à une vitesse considérable. Les premières associations de triathlon au niveau des États australiens ont été créées à la fin de l'année 1984 et en début d'année 1985. La Fédération Australienne de Triathlon a vu le jour en mai 1986 à Broadbeach, dans l'état du Queensland. En 1991, l'organisation responsable du triathlon en Australie a été rebaptisée Triathlon Australia. Triathlon Australia compte 10 000 adhérents et plus de 100 clubs affiliés. Les triathlètes australiens dominent ce sport : ils se sont adjugés une place sur le podium de chaque championnat du monde depuis 1989.

The Olympic triathlon competition will be held on Saturday 16 September (Day 1) for the women and Sunday 17 September (Day 2) for the men. Both events will be held at the Sydney Opera House.

The maximum number of athletes competing at the Olympic triathlon competition, is 100 with 52 men and 48 women.

Competition Format

The competition format includes a 1.5km (one lap x 1500m) swim in open water, a 40km bike ride (six lap course), and a 10km run (two lap course).

The first athlete to complete the course is declared the winner.

The event is continuous with no breaks in competition.

RULES OF TRIATHLON

The triathlon competition at the Sydney 2000 Olympic Games will be held in accordance with the rules of the International Triathlon Union (ITU) and the Olympic Charter which are in force at the time of the Sydney 2000 Olympic Games.

Race Numbers

Competitors will be issued race numbers and the following procedures should be noted:

Race numbers to be worn on front of upper body during the run

Race number transfers to go on both arms and legs

Bike numbers attached to seat posts

Three helmet stickers - front and both sides.

Les compétitions olympiques de triathlon se dérouleront le samedi 16 (jour 1) pour les femmes et le 17 septembre (jour 2) pour les hommes. Les deux épreuves auront lieu à l'Opéra de Sydney.

Le nombre maximum de triathlons autorisés à concourir aux Jeux Olympiques est limité à 100 : 50 pour les hommes et 50 pour les femmes.

FORMAT DES COMPETITIONS

Une compétition de triathlon comprend : une section natation de 1,5 km en pleine mer (un tour de parcours), suivie d'une course à vélo de 40 km (six tours de parcours) et une course à pied de 10 km (deux tours de parcours).

Le premier athlète à terminer cette course en trois parties est déclaré vainqueur.

C'est une épreuve continue, sans pause entre les différentes sections.

REGLEMENT DES COMPETITIONS

Les compétitions de triathlon des Jeux Olympiques de Sydney 2000 se dérouleront conformément au règlement de l'Union Internationale de Triathlon (ITU) et à la Charte olympique en vigueur au moment des Jeux Olympiques de Sydney 2000.

En vertu de la Charte olympique, l'ITU assume la responsabilité du contrôle et de la direction techniques des compétitions de triathlon aux Jeux Olympiques.

NUMEROS DE COURSE

Les concurrents recevront des numéros qu'ils devront porter de la façon suivante :

sur le torse pendant la course à pied ;

sur les jambes et les bras (décalques) ;

sous la selle de vélo ;

sur le casque : un à l'avant et un de chaque côté.
